Reported Speech To Direct Speech

Reported speech tells you what someone is saying, without the use of speech marks.

Direct speech uses speech marks (or inverted commas) to show what the person is actually saying.

Change these sentences from reported speech to direct speech. The first one has been done for you.

- The bus driver said it would cost £1 to get on the bus.
"It will be £1 please," said the bus driver.
- The giant told Jack that it was his gold.
